

Where to find the best chocolate in Canada

By Canadian Living

Want to satisfy your sweet tooth with the most delicious chocolate around? We know just the places to go. Discover three sweet shops that have the best chocolate in Canada.

These three Canadian shops are the best chocolate connoisseurs around:

SOMA Chocolatemaker (Toronto)

Nestled in the heart of Toronto's Distillery District, SOMA is a sweet oasis of chocolate. Sourcing cacao beans from all over the world, the chocolatiers at SOMA hand-sort, roast, conch and mould the chocolate into delightful creations. Some of the most popular chocolates include their eight-year-aged-balsamic truffle and the butter caramel with fleur de sel.

In addition to fantastic chocolates, shoppers will also find handmade chocolate bars, cookies, gelato and other delicious creations at both the Distillery District store and in a newer location on King Street West.

©iStockphoto.com/MBPHOTO, INC.

"SOMA has changed everything about the way I look at chocolate!" -- Danielle Young, via Facebook

Miss Chocolat (Gatineau, Que.)

Subtle combinations of inspired flavours set the unique chocolate creations of Miss Chocolat apart. Customer favourites include the Riopelle (dark chocolate filled with Riopelle cheese, dark- and milk-chocolate ganache), the Azteque (hot pepper, ginger, cardamom, dark- and milk-chocolate ganache covered in milk chocolate) and the Maki (hazelnut praline, coriander, dark chocolate, candied ginger and maple syrup, all wrapped up in a sheet of nori).

"Chocolates with port wine, lavender, beer, jasmine tea, curry and coconut milk, maple syrup.... OK, gotta go buy some! See what you did?" -- Christine Vasseur, via Facebook

Choklat (Calgary)

At Choklat, life is not like Forrest Gump's box of chocolates. Instead, you know exactly what you're going to get -- because you get to create exactly what you want. Each confection begins with chocolate made in-house from carefully selected cacao beans grown in single plantations all over the world. Customers select fillings, the type of chocolate (milk, dark or white), and additions, such as nuts or candies, to their exact specifications; the chocolate is then hand-made to order.

If you're in Calgary, visit the store to create your own sweet treat, or order online -- they'll ship your delicious creations across the country.

"I go to Choklat in Calgary. They buy the beans and roast them themselves, one of the few places that do. The truffles are hand-dipped and made to order, so delicious!" -- Claire Hannaford, via Facebook